HOW TO: Use this list as a springboard for exploration. Remember this is only the tip of the iceberg! There are many more out there! Many of you are interested in multiple areas and industries, keep an open mind as you explore and absolutely cross into areas other than your major!

Collect a top ten list of your favorite companies or organization's career and opportunity pages. To expand your search, Google map organizations in your field in areas you’d like to live. If you don’t see any current opportunities at your favorite organization or company write a letter of interest to put yourself on their radar.
